GUIDELINES FOR NOMINATION

Division 5 Kentucky Tennessee District of Kiwanis International 2013 LAYPERSON OF THE YEAR AWARD

Each club in good standing within Division 5 Kentucky Tennessee District of Kiwanis International is encouraged to nominate a member in good standing of their club for the Layperson of the Year Award.

The Layperson of the Year Award recognizes an individual Kiwanian who exemplifies the first two Objects of Kiwanis International, namely

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

A nomination is to include a written narrative, not more than two pages (500 words) in length, plus the signed cover sheet. The narrative should highlight only the nominee's actions over the past year. Longevity is NOT the key ingredient in the nominee's record of service to mankind for the purpose of this award. Younger members of Kiwanis have an equal opportunity of being nominated and selected for this award. Past recipients (list attached) are not eligible.

The nomination must be signed by (1) Club President, (2) Chair of Human and Spiritual Values Committee, and (3) Club Secretary.

David Green is the chair of the committee to select the Division 5 Layperson of the Year. The selection will be based solely on the above material, sent to the address below by the due date. No other submissions will be accepted, and to be considered, all submissions MUST meet all of the above criteria.
